

Manager Approval Letter

Leadership Summit 2026

Subject: Request for Approval to Attend UXINDIA 2026 Leadership Summit

Dear Manager,

I would like to request your approval to attend the UXINDIA 2026 Leadership Summit, taking place in Bengaluru from 23-25 September 2026.

The summit brings together design executives, product leaders, innovation experts, and business strategists from leading organizations to discuss design leadership, AI transformation, customer experience, product strategy, and organizational innovation.

Why this is valuable for our team

Develop stronger leadership capabilities

The sessions focus on leading high-performing teams, influencing business strategy, and driving design-led innovation across organizations.

Learn practical AI strategies

The conference explores how AI is transforming design and product development, with practical frameworks that can be applied within our projects.

Gain industry best practices

Learning from global leaders will provide actionable ideas to improve collaboration, customer experience, design operations, and product outcomes.

Bring knowledge back to the team

Following the conference, I will prepare a knowledge-sharing session summarizing key learnings, frameworks, and recommendations that can benefit the wider team.

Expand our professional network

The event offers opportunities to connect with senior leaders across industries, creating relationships that can support future collaboration and innovation.

Expected Return on Investment

The investment extends beyond individual development. The insights gained can improve team effectiveness, leadership capability, product quality, and decision-making while introducing proven practices from leading organizations.

I believe attending this summit will help me contribute more strategically and create greater value for our organization.

Thank you for considering my request.

Sincerely,
